

Delivery Driver
Part-Time- Hourly

Chowgirls is looking for Delivery Drivers for the 2022 season.

Delivery Driver Responsibilities:

- Ability to work well as a team and individually at events.
- Provide prompt and courteous service to all guests.
- Have a respectful and positive disposition.
- Demonstrate strong communication and customer service skills.
- Maintain professional standards of appearance, attendance, and punctuality.
- Load and unload event equipment/food at Chowgirls Headquarters.

Delivery Driver Qualifications:

- A valid drivers' license is required.
- Ability to prioritize tasks, remain focused, work independently and collaboratively.
- Working knowledge of email communication is necessary.
- Ability to maintain a calm demeanor under pressure.
- Thrives in a fast-paced environment.
- Ability to move and lift 50lbs and stand for long periods of time.
- Must be at least eighteen years of age.
- Willingness to work long hours, irregular shifts, and on weekends and holidays.

Schedule Expectations:

- Through the Spring of 2022, you will undergo front-of-house training with the Hospitality team. Please expect more regular "part-time" hours beginning in May of 2022.
- This job requires a large amount of flexibility that aligns with the seasonal event schedule with a larger amount of availability through the months of May, through December. Willingness to work long hours, irregular shifts, and on weekends and holidays.