Chowgirls catering is looking for Event Managers for the 2022 season. A minimum of two years of experience in a leadership role within the hospitality industry is required.

Event Manager Responsibilities:

- Manage all front and back of the house event staff during the duration of the event.
- Create and delegate roles and responsibilities to each onsite staff member.
- Ensure that the venue needs are met and confirm that all safety regulations are adhered to.
- Act as the primary day-of contact between the Event Specialist and Chowgirls Client.
- Provide staff with the necessary training to align with Chowgirls service and sustainability etiquette.
- Willingness to be flexible with your schedule to adhere to staffing needs on a week-to-week basis.
- Fulfill additional pre-event and post-event needs that may be requested by the Event Specialist and/or the Hospitality Team.

Event Manager Qualifications:

- A minimum of two years of experience in a leadership role within the hospitality industry.
- Exceptional leadership skills and ability to manage a diverse onsite team.
- Impeccable verbal and written communication skills.
- Ability to thrive and manage a team in a fast-paced environment.
- Ability to move and lift 50 lbs and stand for long periods of time.
- Valid Minnesota Drivers' license and willingness to learn and drive company vans.

Event Manager Availability Expectations:

- Through the Spring of 2022, you will undergo event management training with the Hospitality team. Please expect more regular “part-time” hours beginning in May of 2022.
- A larger amount of availability is expected through the months of May through December.
