

PARTY COOK

Part Time – Hourly

Chowgirls catering is looking for Party Cooks! Party Cooks are responsible for food transport, kitchen set up and break down and preparing all food needed for events.

PARTY COOK RESPONSIBILITIES:

- The Party Cook's main responsibility is to oversee all food preparation and safety.
- Maintain a well-rounded knowledge of our seasonal and staple menu items.
- Have knowledge of ingredient lists, especially regarding dietary and allergen information.
- Expo, pack, and account for all food in an organized and safe manner, while applying Food Safety practices and standards to maintain Chowgirl's food quality and expectations throughout the duration of the event.
- Prepare, plate, and present all food in compliance with the client's expectations and needs, maintaining Chowgirls aesthetic.
- Fulfill additional pre-event and post-event needs that may be requested by the Event Manager and/or the Hospitality Team.
- Provide specific event feedback to Executive Chef and Chef de Cuisine by filing a Party Cook report at the end of each event.
- Demonstrate a willingness to be flexible. Must adjust to Chowgirls event staffing/ scheduling needs on a week-to-week basis.

PARTY COOK QUALIFICATIONS:

- Experience in food preparation and professional kitchen work within the hospitality industry is required.
- Food safety certified or willing to take a certification class.
- Ability to work flexibly and adjust skills to unique environments.
- Must demonstrate professional and clear verbal and written communication skills.
- Ability to thrive and work in a kitchen in a fast-paced environment.
- Ability to work for 8 hours on your feet and lift 40 lbs.
- Valid Minnesota Drivers' license and willingness to drive company vans.

PARTY COOK AVAILABILITY EXPECTATIONS:

- This job requires scheduling flexibility that aligns with the seasonal event schedule, with a larger amount of availability through May, June, July, August, September, October, November, and December. Willingness to work long hours, irregular shifts, weekends, and holidays.

*Discrimination of any kind including but not limited to race, religion, disability, national origin, sexual orientation, gender, and age is not tolerated and will result in disciplinary action*